

Clear Skies Ahead as Phillips 66 Aviation and Phillips 66 Lubricants Celebrate the 50th Anniversary of SUN ‘n FUN Aerospace Expo with Exclusive Show Specials

HOUSTON – (March 28, 2024) – Phillips 66® Aviation and Phillips 66® Lubricants will attend this year’s SUN ‘n FUN at Florida’s Lakeland Linder International Airport (KLAL) from April 9 – 14. Attendees of this year’s annual Aerospace Expo will have the opportunity to celebrate 50 years of aviation while visiting 500 exhibitors showcasing the latest products and services, job fairs, meeting with aviation pilots, watching dozens of forums and more.

“We are excited to celebrate 50 years of SUN ‘n FUN, which brings awareness to all aspects of aviation,” said Sunny Lopez, Manager, Phillips 66 Aviation. “This event is important to the Phillips 66 team as it provides opportunities to engage with customers directly, educate consumers, showcase our latest innovations and reinforce our long-standing expertise and commitment to the aviation industry.”

Both teams will be located at tents #N29 and #N30. There will be several opportunities for attendees to engage with Phillips 66 Aviation and Lubricants team during SUN ‘n FUN’:
